

Q Then you came to New Brunswick Monday morning?

A Early Monday morning.

Q Now, let us get to Monday morning; do you remember what you did there Monday morning?

A Let's see; I arrived in New Brunswick on Saturday.

I bought a suit of clothes to wear at the funeral and I must have done that Monday morning. I bought that suit of clothes at Lyons and Parker's.

Q In New Brunswick?

A Yes. I didn't have a darksuit of clothes. I bought that suit of clothes Monday morning, because I know that they were to send it up to the house in time for the funeral and we were a little bit worried whether it would get there in time or not.

BY MR. STUDER:

Q Did you come back alone from New York to New Brunswick?

A Mrs. Stevens came back with me, because we attended the funeral together in New Brunswick. And the time of it - was that 11.10 or 11 o'clock in the morning? I know we had our lunch on the ferry from Staten Island. You see we drove down to Amboy, wasn't it?

MR. CARPENDER: Went down to Amboy and took
